

Book Publishing Workplace Experience Placements

Available in Gauteng, and Western Cape

The Publishers' Association of South Africa is offering exciting internship opportunities for individuals who want to develop their career in the Book Publishing Industry. The programme is funded by FP & M Seta (Fibre Processing and Manufacturing Sector Education Training Authority).

Purpose:

- Development of human resource capacity in the publishing industry;
- Addressing the needs as articulated in the Fibre, Processing and Manufacturing SETA (Sector Education & Training Authority) with regard to the demographics of the country; and
- Increasing the employability of unemployed, qualified graduates.

Description:

- The Internship Programme is a structured placement programme administered by the Publishers' Association of South Africa.
- Duration: a year (1 February 2025 to 31 January 2026).
- Interns will be paid a monthly stipend.
- The internship will be with contracted publishing companies which are in the Education, Trade and Academic Sectors. People trained in video production are encouraged to apply.
- Interns will sign a contract which will commit them to the period and conditions of involvement and employment.

Requirements:

- Individuals who want to pursue and develop a career in publishing;
- A tertiary qualification;
- Individuals who are:
 - eager to learn
 - proactive
 - independent thinkers
 - assertive and
 - enjoy language and communication.

Applications to be submitted to pasa@publishsa.co.za

Closing date: 27 September 2024
--

Note:

1. The internship appointments will be in accordance with the employment equity requirements of the FP&M SETA.